Rules & Regulations:

- Vendors must arrive for setup on Friday or Saturday
- Vendors are responsible for their own tablecloths, booth decorations, and setup.
- Food vendors must comply with all local health codes.
- Vendors agree to leave their area clean at the end of the event.
- The festival reserves the right to decline any vendor at its discretion.

Vendor Operations & Guidelines

Thank you for participating in the Juneteenth Freedom Festival Vendor Marketplace, one of the largest vendor markets in Southwest Louisiana. Our goal is to create a safe, organized, and vibrant environment for vendors, guests, and families to enjoy the celebration of freedom, culture, and community. Please review the following guidelines carefully. No refunds on booth space reservations.

Vendor Setup

- Vendor load-in and setup times will be provided in advance of the event.
- Vendors must be fully set up before the event opens to the public.
- All booths must remain within the assigned vendor space.
- Vendors are responsible for bringing their own tables, chairs, tents, and setup materials unless otherwise noted.

Operating Hours

- Vendors are expected to remain open and operational for the full duration of the event.
- Early breakdown will be permitted with approval by festival management.
- Maintaining a full marketplace experience is important for our guests and fellow vendors.

Vendor Breakdown

- Vendors may begin packing up only after the event has officially ended.
- No vehicles will be allowed into the vendor area until cleared by festival staff.
- This policy is in place for the safety of attendees and vendors.
- Vendors are expected to completely clear their space within the designated breakdown window.

Safety & Cleanliness

- Vendors must keep their area clean and safe at all times.
- Trash must be bagged and placed in designated trash areas.
- No open flames or cooking equipment unless previously approved.
- Vendors must follow all local health and safety regulations if serving food.

Vendor Participation & Compliance Agreement

By signing below, I acknowledge that I have read and understand the Juneteenth Freedom Festival Vendor Guidelines provided by the Voices of Freedom Collective Foundation. I agree to comply with all festival policies, including setup procedures, operating hours, safety regulations, and breakdown guidelines.

I understand that vendors are expected to remain open and operational during all official festival hours and that early breakdown is not permitted without approval from festival management. I also acknowledge that vehicles will not be allowed into the vendor area until authorized by event staff to ensure the safety of attendees.

I further agree to maintain a clean, safe, and professional vendor space and to conduct business in a respectful manner that reflects the spirit of community, culture, and unity represented by the Juneteenth Freedom Festival.

Failure to comply with these guidelines may result in removal from the event and/or loss of vendor participation privileges for future festivals.

Please submit this form (and any required documents) by September 4.
